GARY WILL MISS TROOPS WHO ARE TO LEAVE SOON

When the provisional regiment of the Fourth division leaves Gary on Monday, a total of 500 men and 50 officers who have been doing guard duty in the city during the past three months will say their farewells.

According to Col. Mapes this morning every soldier will be out of the city by evening with the exception of a small detail to take care of the final cleaning up. Col. Mapes and his staff will be the last to leave for Fort Sheridan, where the soldiers will be billeted until other orders take them to their own camp at Camp Dodge, Ia.

That the soldiers will be missed in many ways is quite evident. During their stay in the city they have left thousands of dollars in the business district. According to Col. Mapes, the monthly pay roll amounted to something like $15,000 and most of this has been left with the various business houses in the city every month.

"After June 29, 1920, a very small number of persons could handle the affairs of the corporation. If the future is a way of giving perfect title to innocent purchasers of homes no one will object to the functions of the U. S. Housing corporation being placed in any executive department after June 29, 1920."

"But a very right-minded person will object to the unrighted effort to break the spirit of not the letter of the Constitution of the United States by placing thus the manifest executive function of managing the government hotels under a congressional committee."

"Legislation should provide:

"1. For the breaking up of the U. S. Housing corporation, no forms or by transfer of the functions necessary to complete the transactions under way."

"2. That the government hotels be left under the U. S. Housing corporation until June 29, 1920, the end of the present fiscal year. After that date the government hotels should be placed in whatever executive department congress places the affairs of the United States Housing corporation."

The government hotels are a war enterprise and at the expiration of the housing congestion caused by the war they should be closed and building materials and equipment sold for what they will bring, as there will be quite a substantial salvage.

The operation of the hotels and the selling of the plan are executive not legislative functions."

Frost Tells of War Devastation

Joseph Frost, who returned from a two months' visit in England and toured the war devastated countries in France and Belgium, addressed the Men's club of the First Congregational church at the regular meeting at the Y. M. C. A. yesterday evening.
